Prairie Spirit confirms commitment to CTASP

Prairie Spirit confirmed its ongoing commitment to a key safety protocol—the Community Threat Assessment and Support Protocol (CTASP)—by participating in a signing ceremony along with 22 other local partners on April 26.

This collaborative CTASP work involves the entire community to support safe schools and neighbourhoods. Larry Pavloff, Board Chair, and Lori Jeschke, Director of Education, participated in the ceremony at the Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technology (SIIT). The partnership has expanded to include SIIT, Great Plains College and Whitecap Dakota First Nation.

As part of CTASP, Prairie Spirit works with other local school divisions (Conseil des écoles francophones, Greater Saskatoon Catholic, Saskatoon Public) and a variety of community organizations to put best safety and prevention procedures into place.

Community partners include: University of Saskatchewan, Sask Polytechnic, Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Social Services, RCMP, Ministry of Education and the Saskatoon Police Service, among others.

Within the protocol, the Division is committed to following established safety procedures in our schools.

The protocol facilitates sharing of information between community organizations (for example, the Ministries of Social Services, Education and Justice, as well as local police services and other organizations) when a student may pose a risk of violence towards themselves or others.

Prairie Spirit first joined the CTASP partnership in 2013. More information is available on the Division's Safe Schools page on the Prairie Spirit website.

Relocatable classrooms on the move in Prairie Spirit

As part of the 2018/19 provincial budget, Prairie Spirit will receive some funding to assist in moving relocatable classrooms within the Division.

Two relocatable classrooms will be moving to Waldheim School while one classroom will be moving to Dundurn School. The Board approved these moves at its regular meeting on May 23. Plans for these moves will take several months.
