Compensation Payment

The Compensation Payment is an estimate of the proportionate share of the trust funds received from the Government of Canada to compensate Boards of Education for the loss of tax revenue when rural lands are set aside as reserves under Special Claims by First Nations. Any monies remaining in the trust fund once all 300,000 acres have been set aside as reserve will be distributed on a proportionate basis to Boards of Education who have received Compensation Payments. The Compensation Payment is calculated by taking the number of acres converted to reserve land and multiplying that number by $4.00.
