Tracey Young presented the Decision Report requesting approval of a revised 2022/23 School Year Calendar. A revision was required to balance the semesters in order to meet the Ministry requirement for the minimum number of instructional hours for core high school courses. Therefore, Teacher Prep Time was moved from January 30 to January 31.

5. THAT the Board approved the revised 2022/23 School Year Calendar as presented by Administration and attached to form part of these minutes.

Teresa Korol presented the Decision Report requesting approval to submit the three-year (2023/24, 2024/25 and 2025/26) Preventative Maintenance and Renewal Plan to the Ministry of Education. Multiple projects were identified in five key areas – roofing projects, structural projects, HVAC projects, electrical projects, and school renovation projects – totaling $6.2 M in 2023/24. Funding will not be received to complete all of the projects, but including them all on the application allows Administration to prioritize the projects once funding is known.

7. THAT the Board approve the three-year (2023/24, 2024/25, and 2025/26) Preventative Maintenance and Renewal Plan to the Ministry of Education as presented by Administration.
